Overview

Brendan Lund is Co-chair of Hopkins & Carley's Corporate Practice. Brendan has a hybrid corporate and tax practice, and collaborates with and advises businesses that are expanding their global footprint. He serves as a strategic business advisor while providing a tax perspective to the overall business goals.

Brendan advises early stage and middle market businesses, entrepreneurs and investors, with a focus on:

- Entity formation and tax classification of domestic and international businesses
- Financings and investment
- Outside general counsel of middle market and portfolio companies
- Key operational contracts and agreements
- Taxable and tax-free mergers and acquisitions, including complex private equity sales and rollovers

Brendan helps businesses anticipate and plan for the complex tax jurisdictional and compliance requirements that accompany growth. He also advises businesses on cross-border transactions with a concentration on direct investment in the U. S. and
