Overview

Elizabeth Cirone is an associate in the San Jose office of Hopkins & Carley and a member of the Real Estate Practice. She focuses on all phases of construction and real estate related disputes from contract drafting and negotiation to complex litigation for both commercial and residential projects.

Liz represents property owners, prime contractors, subcontractors, material suppliers, and design professionals on matters involving:

- Construction contract claims
- Mechanic's liens and stop notices
- Multi-party construction defect litigation
- Real property disputes
- Lease disputes

Prior to joining Hopkins & Carley, Liz was with Bustamante, O'Hara & Gagliasso, where her practice included the defense of construction professionals and tradesmen in construction defect lawsuits.
