

Peter F. Stone

Of Counsel

pstone@hopkinscarley.com

Phone: 650.804.7620

- Industries

- eCommerce
- Food & Beverage
- Industrial & Manufacturing
- Retail
- Technology

- Services

- Corporate
- Intellectual Property
- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Emerging Growth Companies

Overview

Peter Stone is a member of Hopkins & Carley's Corporate Practice in the Palo Alto office. He regularly advises entrepreneurs, emerging companies and investors on issues involving:

- Corporate formation, governance and finance
- Commercial and IP licensing transactions
- Mergers, acquisitions and corporate partnerships

Peter also provides business-oriented legal advice and counsel to CEOs, investors and directors.

Prior to joining Hopkins & Carley, Peter was in private practice, representing start up and emerging growth companies and investors in early stage companies. In addition, Peter was a founder, Vice President, General Counsel and CFO of a wireless IoT

hopkins carley

start up. He is also a former partner in the Emerging Companies practice at Cooley in Palo Alto.

Experience

- U.S. counsel to a global security technology company.
- Outside general counsel to a public semiconductor company.
- Advise provider of cloud-based people and asset tracking and intrusion detection services.
- Represent an augmented/virtual reality technology company.
- Advise social media/mobile app developer of entertainment venue monitoring.

Professional Activities

- Palo Alto Chamber of Commerce, Chair of the Board of Directors
- Page Mill YMCA, Palo Alto, Board Member and Fundraising Program Organizer
- The Enterprise Network (TEN), Silicon Valley, Founder, Chairman

Bar Admissions

- State Bar of California (1982)

Education

- J.D., (Order of the Coif), Stanford University Law School
- B.A. (magna cum laude), Sociology, University of California, Berkeley